From the Minister's Desk

It's Mothers' Day

It's Mothers' Day, the day when we remember all mother did for us, and all she taught us. That is a lot! Mother taught us logic. Remember? "Because I say so, that's why!" Mother taught us about the weather: "It looks as if a tornado swept through your room!" My favorite is mother taught us religion: "You'd better pray that spot comes out of the carpet!"

Mothers have a very special place in our hearts. As a matter of fact, at a university 600 students were recently asked to write on a piece of paper the most beautiful word in the English language. 422 wrote the word "MOTHER." 112 wrote the word "HOME."

Yes, today is the day to honor all mothers. Today, we reflect on the wonderful ways that our mothers have touched our lives. Our mothers have loved us; have dressed us; have fed us; have disciplined us. Our mothers have watched us grow, and prayed for our success. Our mothers have been our greatest cheerleaders—our doctors, our first teachers.

There are so many inspiring stories about a mother's love. Here's one: Barbara Barton was a loving mother. She lived in Oregon and delivered twins in 1994. She refused treatment for leukemia during her pregnancy because that could have harmed her babies. She died January 22, 1995 leaving behind her husband, the twins and a 4-year old daughter. She, like all true mothers, placed her children above her own life. Most of us, no doubt, have stories of our mothers' sacrifices and expressions of love.

Mothers are special. Their love is priceless and their absence leaves a void in our lives that cannot be filled. One day a UPS driver knocked on the door and a little boy answered.

"Hello, little fellow, are you all alone?" asked the UPS man.

"Yes," the boy explained, "Mom is in the hospital and me, my brother, my two little sisters and my daddy, are here all alone!" When the mother is gone, you often feel all alone, for only she can fulfill certain needs! Mothers make the houses into homes! With Jesus in the Mother's heart, they are happy homes.

So it is that today, in honor of our mothers—those still present with us and those whose physical bodies are gone but whose influence and love are ever-present—that we arise up and call them BLESSED.

Happy Mothers' Day!

Richard L. Barclay, Minister
